TURNER, COWLES & CO. BROKE.

Brokerage Concern Falls to Meet Installment on Debt.

A judgment for $1,046 was entered yesterday against Turner, Cowles & Co., a corporation, stockholders at 50 Broadway, in favor of Anthony J. Hill for profits on stock speculations.

His total claim was $1,515, but after suit was begun an arrangement was entered into whereby the corporation was to pay $100 weekly on account and if default was made on any payment judgment could be entered at once. After $500 had been paid on account a default was made on the payment which became due on September 4.

Execution was issued to Deputy Sheriff Barnes, who went to the office at 50 Broadway to make a levy but found the door locked. He was informed that the place had been closed for nearly a week.

The business was started in November, 1904, and incorporated on February 13, 1905, with a capital stock of $100,000, but had no rating at Bradstreet's. The concern has been of late trying to sell stocks and bonds of the American Croco-tying Company. The firm was not represented on any of the exchanges.

UTAH COPPER CO. RESTRAINED.

May Not Increase Its Capital Stock From $4,500,000 to $6,000,000.

TRENTON, N. J., Sept. 12.—Vice-Chancellor Pitney has signed an order temporarily restraining the Utah Copper Company from increasing its capital stock from $4,500,000 to $6,000,000 or from issuing $3,000,000 of bonds convertible into stock within five years, at the option of the holders. The suit was instituted by Eric A. Wall of Salt Lake City, who holds $300,000 par value of the stock of the Utah Company.

Mr. Wall says it was decided by the other stockholders to sell $1 per cent. of the holdings in the Utah Company to the American Smelters Securities company for $19.80 a share. The Smelters company was also to receive 51 per cent. of the bonds and the stockholders of the Utah company the remaining 49 per cent., distributed pro rata on the basis of their holdings.

Mr. Wall charges that the proceedings are irregular and void. He claims that the stock of the Utah company has a market value of between $26 and $30 a share, and an intrinsic value of at least $10. He says he is unwilling to part with his holdings on the proposed basis.

GOLD IMPORTS BEGIN.

Lazard Freres Engage $1,275,000 for Shipment From London.

Gold imports from Europe began yesterday when Lazard Freres engaged $1,275,000 in London for immediate shipment to this side. This was the first consignment of any size since the gold import period which ended in January, 1904. It was said that the importation was an ordinary exchange transaction made at a profit.

The first gold engagement was part of a $2,000,000 shipment arriving in England recently from South Africa. Large additional quantities of gold are expected in London from South Africa in the immediate future, and the possibility of further exports to this country was widely discussed yesterday both here and in London.

SLOSS-SHEFFIELD DIVIDEND.

Stockholders to Divide $2,500,000 More of Common.

The directors of the Sloss-Sheffield Steel and Iron Company declared a scrip dividend yesterday of $2,500,000 in common stock to the common stockholders of record.

This dividend will call for the issuing of $2,500,000 of stock, the unused balance of the $10,000,000 common stock originally authorized. President Maben said that the company has for several years been making large deductions from earnings for improvements and that considering the fact that more than $3,000,000 had been appropriated in this way, the stockholders were entitled to their share. The directors also declared the regular dividends on the common stock.

James N. Wallace, president of the Central Trust Company, who was elected a director a few months ago to succeed the late William E. Strong, was elected a member of the executive committee. President Maben said after the meeting that the much talked of Southern Iron and steel merger was not likely to be revived for a long time to come. The Sloss-Sheffield company expects to build some new mills, but not in the immediate future.

Housekeeping Linens, etc.

At "The Linen Store."

For many years "The Linen Store" has had a national reputation as the chief depot of supply in this country for all that was best in Housekeeping Linens. Not only has this been true regarding Linens for the ordinary household needs in the Dining Room, Bed Room and Bath Room, but we have made it a special point to secure whatever was desirable in the unusual and extraordinary.

Our range of sizes in practically every line is wider than can be secured elsewhere, our designs are more exclusive, and the range in quality considerably greater. A large proportion of the finest and best of flaxen products, from every linen-producing country in the world, finds its way to the public through "The Linen Store."

We take honest pride in the fact that the saying, "If it's linen, you will find it at McCutcheon's," has become proverbial.

Our Handkerchief Department alone has a reputation and individuality which is recognized everywhere. Here you can purchase every desirable kind of Handkerchief within the limits of absolutely pure Linen, and thousands of people from all over the country supply themselves exclusively from this stock.

Another of our specialties is the supplying of Bridal Trousseaux, and it is safe to say that a large proportion of the fine Housekeeping Outfits of the country have been prepared and supplied by "The Linen Store."

Two years ago we purchased the Pansy Corset and Underwear business, which it seemed a natural sequence to add, and we are now in a position to supply to the very best advantage the personal portion of the Bridal Outfits, as well as the Housekeeping Linens.

While "The Linen Store" is pre-eminently the place to secure unusual sizes, exclusive designs and luxurious Linens, it is equally well prepared to supply the sturdier Linens required for the everyday requirements of the household, and we believe nowhere else can they be purchased to better advantage.

NEW SERGEANTS SOON.

Policemen Undergo Examination—Mr. McAdoo and the Mayor Chat.

Candidates for promotion to the rank of police sergeant underwent physical examination yesterday and it is expected that Commissioner McAdoo will announce some appointments in a few days. The Commissioner visited Mayor McClellan yesterday, and when asked if his visit had any special significance, said:

"We swapped fish and vacation yarns. I think I had the best of the Mayor at that. He didn't go fishing."

Some citizens interested in the moral welfare of the city sent the Commissioner an advertisement out from a morning newspaper. The advertisement called for help to serve in a poolroom. The poolroom happened to be a billiard parlor, however.

"Reminds me of the time," said the Commissioner, "that a man sent me full information of a gambling house which he said was being run without any attempt at concealment. I sent a man to investigate, and it proved to be the Cotton Exchange. Might have taken—well never mind whether I might have raided or not."

James N. Wallace, president of the Central Trust Company, who was elected a director a few months ago to succeed the late William E. Strong, was elected a member of the executive committee. President Maben said after the meeting that the much talked of Southern Iron and steel merger was not likely to be revived for a long time to come. The Sloss-Sheffield company expects to build some new mills, but not in the immediate future.

TROUBLE FOLLOWS HER FLAG.

She Plants Them Where Supervisor Wants to Work and Guards Them With Gun.

READING, Pa., Sept. 12.—Mrs. Maria Wagonhorst to-day proved herself Berks county's Barbara Frietchie. "Shoot if you must this old gray head, but the man who takes one flag from the front of my property will run up against a bunch of trouble."

So in effect, if not in so many words, spoke Mrs. Wagonhorst when Supervisor Fegley attempted to open a gutter in front of her store. Recently she had constructed a drain and she believed the gutter would interfere with it. This morning she planted seven American flags along the drain, and then stood guard with a shotgun. The supervisor and his assistants saw that the meant business, and departed with more haste than grace. The flags are still there and Mrs. Wagonhorst is still on guard. The matter will likely reach the courts.

NEW SIGNAL SYSTEM FOR ERIE.

Operated by Electric Storage Batteries and to Reinforce Block System.

A new automatic system of signals is to be installed on the Erie Railroad between Jersey City and Middletown. It is known as the Hall electric semaphore normal clear system, and is operated by stationary storage batteries. The signals will be put two-thirds of a mile apart for the first thirty-two miles and one and one-third of a mile the rest of the distance.

Five power plants will be used for charging the batteries, which will be at Rutherford Junction, Ridgewood Junction, Suffern, Oxford and Middletown. The present block system is satisfactory, but it is thought best to install the new system for further protection and to accelerate the movement of trains. The most congested part of the Erie system is to be protected by the new signals. If it proves all that is claimed for it it will be extended over the entire line in the near future. The expenditure for the short line proposed will be about $350,000.

WHISKY SAVES ADDER'S VICTIM.

Man Bitten by Red Reptile Drinks a Quart of Liquor and Still Lives.

WATERBURY, Conn., Sept. 12.—Arthur L. Mitchell of North Woodbury, a farmer, was cutting fodder corn yesterday when a big red adder bit him on the wrist. Mr. Mitchell dislodged the squirming reptile and ran for home. A neighbor quickly brought a quart of liquor which Mitchell drank. He suffered terribly all night, but the liquor has saved his life the physicians say.

FINANCIAL NOTES.

The Standard Oil Company has advanced the price of crude petroleum 2 and 3 cents a barrel, according to grade, and the price of refined petroleum for export 10 cents a barrel. The advance is said to be due to the fact that the export demand has greatly improved of late.

Beginning to-day the State Railroad Commission will hold hearings on Long Island for the abolition of eleven grade crossings on the line of the Long Island Railroad in the town of Huntington, Smithtown, Islip and Brookhaven.

Business Troubles.

A petition in bankruptcy has been filed against Ellis Filter and Max Wilkind, who do business under the style of the Aetna Silk and Satin Company at 56 Broadway. The business was started in March, 1903, the present firm was formed on July 1, 1904, and on January 1, 1905, they claimed to have a capital of $5,000.

Justice Dowling of the Supreme Court has appointed Richard H. Clarke receiver of the assets of the firm of John Holst & Co., for years, 184 West 23rd street, in a suit brought by Charles Danewitz, one of the partners against John Holst for a dissolution of the partnership and to wind up the business.

The KNABE-ANGELUS

Proclaims and Establishes the Artistic Character
Of Piano Playing by Means of the ANGELUS

For years conservative musical critics have discountenanced the playing of the piano by mechanical aid, proclaiming it inartistic and bourgeois. While this superstition held, the manufacturers of pianos of the first class refused to allow any combination of a piano-playing device with their product.

But highest musical opinion has changed. The almost superhuman genius which originated and developed the Angelus, the pioneer of all piano-playing devices, has brought conviction to the most stubborn musical critics.

Today the Angelus stands proven to be susceptible to the most artistic rendition of music, in the hands of a capable performer. While there are other piano-players that render music in pleasing style, the Angelus stands absolutely alone in the highest possibilities of a distinctly artistic character. The Angelus alone reproduces the sensitive human touch, in perfect control of the player. In its wonderful tone-building, phrasing, and the delicate shading of expression, it has no successful imitator.

A year ago Wm. Knabe & Co. were convinced that the time had come to combine the Angelus with their splendid instruments.

Today the world's greatest music may be played on one of these superbly great pianos, by whoever wishes to enjoy it, whether possessing a musical education or not. And the beautiful Upright Knabe Piano has the player hidden away in its case, and no cabinet beside it is necessary.

A one of the highest musical journals in the country has said, The Knabe-Angelus "must appeal to the public as no other existing combination can."

These wonderful instruments are coming very slowly from the factory, and are sold almost as quickly as they arrive. Today a few more are here, but they will be gone quickly.

Remember that we will take the old piano, which you cannot play—no matter what kind it may be—in part payment for a Knabe-Angelus that will make an artist of any one who loves music. Easy monthly payments, if you desire.

See and hear the Knabe-Angelus today if possible, while we are sure of having one to show you.
